

As you read, keep track of when and how Mary Shelley addresses each of the following themes:

	Citation / Explanation	Citation / Explanation	Citation / Explanation	Citation / Explanation
1. The male pursuance of goals against all odds
2. The role of women as passive and dependent on men
3. The usurpation of female reproductive power by science
4. Enlightenment thinking
5. Romantic Thinking
6. Gothic Elements
7. Ruthless Conquest of Nature				